

Windrush Bay Condominium Association, Inc.
Board of Directors Meeting
January 19th, 2017

- D. Phone Directory Committee: Marion Linkh reported that 2017 phone directories are available for $1.00 from either Carol Lovejoy or Marion Linkh. If there are any corrections, additions or deletions needed to the directory, members are asked to contact Marion at mblinkh@gmail.com or at 845-649-6322.
 - E. Pool Committee: David Martin reported that the pool has been very active, and he reminded members that the last person to use the pool in the evening should cover it. However, David stressed the need to be careful winding and unwinding the cover since the shaft has become loose. The code for unlocking the padlock is 1,2,3,4.
 - F. Welcome Packets: Sally Romano and committee have updated the welcome packets, providing new residents with relevant information about Windrush Bay and the Tarpon Springs community. The goal is to have the packets distributed by the end of January.
4. Volunteer Groups:
- A. Crime Watch: Carol Lovejoy reported that T.J. Nagy is trying to schedule a meeting in January for the purpose of informing residents of the work of Crime Watch and will ask the police officer in charge to make a presentation some Wednesday evening in late January or early February.
 - B. Social Activities: Mary Schram reported that bingo grilling, game night, mah jongg, and Texas-hold-em have begun and are well attended. Sixty-four residents attended Welcome Back Cocktails, and thirty-seven women attend Girls Night Out. Plum Tomato Pizza Night is scheduled for Jan 27, and the Pancake Breakfast is scheduled for February 2. Dale Jamison is conducting a super bowl pool.
5. Unfinished Business
- A. Dock Update: Lou DeSantis has met with county officials and will soon meet with Tarpon Springs officials to determine what
